

Barclays and Enhance SIPP Seminar

Thursday 22nd February 2018

Barclays Rise, 41 Luke Street, London, EC2A 4DP

09:30	Coffee & Pastries
10:00	Introduction & Housekeeping	Rise/Enhance/Barclays
	The FCA's approach to the challenges of an ageing population and what firms should be thinking about	Victoria McLoughlin, Ageing Population Strategy, Supervision - Investments, Wholesale and Specialists Division, FCA
	An overview of Alzheimers and Dementia - spotting the early signs	Harriet Hill and Gavin Miller, Alzheimers Society
	Mentally impaired trustees - legal implications	Annabelle Vaughan, Partner, Coffin Mew LLP
11:45	Coffee Break
12:00	Barclays experience of Ageing and Vulnerable clients as well as steps taken to adapt their frontline/services	Anne Rimmer, Director - Customer Vulnerability, Barclays UK
	An update from AMPS - current issues and the year ahead	Zachary Gallagher, Chairman, Association of Member-directed Pension Schemes
	An update from ILAG - current issues and the year ahead	Kelly Cullum, Technical Manager, Investment & Life Assurance Group
13:00	Lunch
13:45	Topical 'financial crime' related issues affecting pension providers, including the impact of the new Immigration Act	Nichola Peters, Partner, Addleshaw Goddard LLP
	An overview of the 'Innovating for Ageing' initiative	David Sinclair, Director, International Longevity Centre - UK
	Practical steps to be taking in respect of the upcoming General Data Protection Regulations and Senior Manager and Certification Regime	Paul Anderson, Partner, Squire Patton Boggs and Ann LaFrance, Partner, Squire Patton Boggs
	The latest cyber crime update and how to keep your business cyber secure	Ross Martin, Head of Cyber - Digital Eagles, Barclays UK
	An update from Enhance	Kevin Jack, Enhance Support Solutions
16:00	Close

Please note that discussion subjects, speaker names and timings may be subject to some change. Other than certain key timings, we have not allocated specific timings to the speaker slots on the basis that some will be necessarily different from others. The event is designed to be interactive, hence we have tried to build in time for questions.